Psalm lvi 3

What time I am Afraid; I Will Trust In Thee

Surely none are so full of cares, or so poor in gifts, that to them also, waiting patiently and trustfully on God for His daily commands, He will not give direct ministry for Him, increasing according to their strength and their desire. There is so much to be set right in the world, there are so many to be led and helped and comforted, that we must continually come in contact with such in our daily life. Let us only take care, that by the glance being turned inward, or strained, or lost in vacant reverie, we do not miss our turn of service, and pass by those to whom we might have been sent on an errand straight from God.—Ellabeth Charles.

REV. LOUGH BEGINS NEW SERIES OF SERMONS

Rev. John S. Lough of the First Methodist Church will begin a new series of sermons on the Ten Commandments. The first of the series will be "The Problem of Priority" this Sunday evening at 7:30 on the Radio Revival Hour. The Sunday School hour is at 10:15 a.m. Pastor Lough will preach on "An Advancing Church" at 11:30 a.m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship is at 6:30 p.m., and the Wesley Foundation hour is at 8:30 p.m.

CONFERENCE AT PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH TODAY

V. F. Agan, pastor of Statesboro Primitive Baptist Church, announces regular conference this evening (Thursday) at 7:30. Regular services will be held Saturday at 10:30 a.m.; Sunday at 11:30 a. m. and 7:30 p.m., with Bible Study at 10:15 a.m. and Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p.m.

ELDER AGAN'S INSPIRATIONAL FOR THIS WEEK IS: "This month shall be unto you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you," said the Lord to old Israel when He led them out of Egypt's bondage.—Exodus, 12:2. If the Lord has saved us from the bondage of sin it should be the be- ginning of a New Year—a New Life to us. Let every member and every believer be faithful in the house of his God and let every vis- itor find a cordial welcome."

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

"The Missing Christian" will be shown at the Friendship Baptist Church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. This is a movie on the Second Coming of Christ.

BUILDING RALLY DAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH JAN. 20

Sunday, January 15, has been set as "Building Rally Day" at the First Baptist Church. Rev. George Lovell says that 700 has been set as the Sunday School attendance goal. He says that the rally is not for a special collection, "But to see if Baptist people have their hearts in this program." Some preliminary plans for the new building will be presented, the planning committee will make a report, and Rev. Lovell will bring a special message.

Services Sunday, January 8, will be as follows: 10:00, Sunday School; 11:15, morning worship; 6:30, evening worship; 8:30, Fellowship hour. Rev. Lovell announced that the Baptist Hour can be heard each Sunday afternoon at 4:30 over the local radio station. Rev. Charles Wellborn, of Fort Worth, Texas, will deliver thirteen messages on "Time for Decision."

Mr. Franklin also stated that for the first time a 6-passenger coupe, known as the Bel Air, possessing the swank of the convertible with the practicality of the solid top, will be presented.

A new "Power-Jet" carburetor eliminates the "lean" periods in gasoline feed and affords quicker warmup in cold weather, he said.

To show the new models of the Chevrolet line, Mr. Franklin states that they will hold open house all day Saturday. Three valuable door prizes will be presented to three visitors that day, including a Magic Chef gas range, complete with installation; a car heater, and a set of seat covers.

MAX B. HURT

W.O.W. to Dedicate East Side's New Playground Area

Thursday, January 19, the local camp of Woodmen of the World will dedicate the playground equipment at the East Side Community Center. A bronze plaque will be properly located in the center.

Max B. Hurt, national treasurer of the Woodmen of the World Insurance Society, is making a special trip from Omaha, Neb., to Statesboro to make the dedication, according to M. O. Lawrence, local Consul Commander.

The dedication will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, with many of the city's school children taking part.

Attending the dedication will be State Manager H. C. Babain and Assistant State Manager M. D. Laster.

Some time ago the local W.O.W. presented the East Side Community the playground equipment for use of the youth of that section of the city.

Mr. Hurt is a veteran of World War I. He became a Woodman in 1929. His work in the society brought him national recognition and he was made national treasurer in 1946.

Courses Be Taught In Salesmanship

Several members of the sales forces of Statesboro business houses have registered for the salesmanship courses to be held here beginning Monday, January 16, and continuing through Friday, January 20.

Allan Hedrick, area instructor of the Department of Distributive Education, will conduct the classes. Classes will be held nightly during that week at Smith-Tillman Mortuary on North Main street from 7:30 to 9:30.

These courses in salesmanship are being sponsored by the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce and are expected to be the first in a series of other free educational courses.

C. A. Hamilton In City Today

C. A. Hamilton of the Social Security Administration will be here today at 10 a.m. to inform interested persons on benefits to aged insured workers and their families when the worker retires and to surviving members of families when the breadwinners die; and to inform those on their rights under this insurance, so that they might reap the full benefits it has to offer. He will also be here January 18 at 12 noon; February 2 at 10 a.m.; February 16 at 12 noon; March 2 at 10 a.m.; and March 16 at 12 noon.

He will make the Georgia State Employment office on North Main street headquarters while here.

Life Ins. of Georgia Opens Office Here

Opening of a new district office of the Life Insurance Company of Georgia in Statesboro with W. E. (Bill) Helmly as manager was announced by Claude R. Sills, Savannah division manager for the company.

The new offices are located on the second floor of the Sea Island Bank building. The district will cover a wide area of this section of the state.

The territory to be served by the new office was formerly served out of the Savannah division office, and Mr. Helmly was in charge of the territorial operation. Mr. Helmly has been a resident of Statesboro for a number of years and is widely known in this section.

Mr. Helmly joined Life of Georgia in June, 1941, as an agent at Glennville, Ga. Prior to his appointment as Savannah district manager, he served as agent and staff manager in Statesboro. He is married to the former Miss Corra Ackerman, of Rincon, Ga., and they have one daughter. Mr. Helmly is a member of Ogeechee Lodge 213, F.&A.M., Statesboro Music Club, and the Methodist Church, where he served on the board of stewards.

Miss Earline Kicklighter, who has been associated with the company for a number of years in the Savannah office, is being transferred to the Statesboro office as cashier. Miss Kicklighter is a former resident of Glennville, Ga.

Three special agents will assist Mr. Helmly in the supervision of the district operation. They are R. C. Hodges of Statesboro, B. E. Carpenter of Guyton, and J. P. Butler of Metter.

The agency operation of the district will be carried on by 15 agents throughout the territory. They are H. S. Watkins, G. C. Hagins, R. E. Gay, and C. W. Kitchens, all of Statesboro; J. P. Riggs of Guyton, J. L. Smarr and C. Futch of Metter, C. E. Williams and C. C. Patrick of Vidalia, R. E. Lewis of Pembroke, J. W. Fields and K. C. Norris of Soperton, G. W. Oliver of Claxton, J. E. Ellington and W. S. Tippins of Springfield.

4,743 In Bulloch Filed '48 Ad Valorem Returns

A. S. Dodd Jr., one of Bulloch county's two representatives in the Georgia Legislature, told members of the Bulloch County League of Women Voters that of the approximately 13,000 citizens of Bulloch county over 21 years of age, only 4,743 made an ad valorem tax return in 1949.

Speaking in an open forum at the Bulloch County Library Tuesday night of this week, Representative Dodd presented a dreary picture of the muddled state of the present tax system of Georgia.

He is a strong advocate of tax revision for the state.

In revealing the figures on the number of tax returns made by Bulloch county citizens he pointed out that of the approximately 7,900 white citizens in the county over 21 years of age, only 3,780 made an ad valorem tax return. Of the approximately 4,900 Negroes over 21, only 963 made ad valorem tax returns.

In Georgia, he stated that over 1,200,000 citizens do not file such a return. Of the state's 3,000,000 population approximately 2,000,000 are over 21 and, of this number, only 538,000 whites and 200,000 Negroes filed returns.

He scored the present method of tax assessment and the methods used in valuing property for tax purposes. "If you are a good horse-trader you can get along," he suggested. He pointed out that it would take one person, working full time, or several well trained persons, working full time, to properly check and inspect property in order to assess it on an equitable basis. The present method of making tax returns, of making valuations, of assessing taxes is "unequitable and unfair in every respect," he said. His statement received the hearty applause of his listeners.

Open discussion followed Representative Dodd's general statement.

Representative A. J. Trapnell was also present at the meeting. Mrs. W. W. Edge presided.

Veterans May Still Ask for Dividend

Important information affecting all veterans who have applied for National Service Life Insurance and have not received acknowledgment cards from the bureau which has been set up in Washington to pay these dividends was released today by William K. Barrett, director of the State Department of Veterans Service.

Barrett's statement is quoted below: "Veterans who have failed to receive their acknowledgment cards within 30 days after they mailed them, are advised to fill out and mail in another application. In so doing, they should write the word 'Duplicate' on each of the two sections of the card. Failure to receive an acknowledgment card from the V.A. could have been due either to the fact that the veteran failed to write his complete address on his application, or he moved after mailing it and failed to notify his post office of his new mailing address. It is possible also in some instances that his card became lost in handling or processing."

Barrett advised all veterans who did not receive acknowledgment cards to call at the local Veterans Service Office, where they will receive the necessary forms and will be aided in making re-application. The Veterans Service Office in this area is located at Statesboro, Ga.

William Haaker, Concert Pianist, At College Auditorium January 10

William Haaker, pianist and conductor of the Richmond and Virginia Orchestras, will appear at Georgia Teachers College at 8:15 P. M., Tuesday, January 10, in the second concert of the series sponsored by the college and the Statesboro Concert Association.

Haaker, a protege of Jose Iturbi, will offer a program ranging from the works of Chopin to compositions reflecting late trends in popular music. The audience will be limited to students, members of the Concert Association, and their guests.

Dr. Roger J. Holland, Jr., president of the Concert Association, has disclosed that his group will sponsor two additional attractions before the end of the season in May. The Association presented its first artists, the Chicago Grand Opera Ballet, before an enthusiastic, capacity house on November 4.

NEWS BRIEFS

TWENTY-FOUR war veterans, including a former German Coast-guardsmen, Albin Hans Eber are among 80 students making the Dean's List at Georgia Teachers College for last fall. Forty-two men and 38 women made the necessary B-plus average or better. Eber is sponsored by the Statesboro Rotary Club.

GEORGIA TEACHERS COLLEGE has duplicated a high fall enrollment with a winter-quarter registration this week of 765. The college, President Zach Henderson reported, is still far from able to house all its male applicants in its one men's dormitory.

DONALD McDUGGALD, son of Mrs. Isabel McDougald and the late Walter McDougald, has been added to the staff in the comptroller's office at Georgia Teachers College. McDougald, who graduated from Emory University in December, replaces James W. Gunter, who is now with the Bowen Furniture Co.

MISS MAUDE WHITE of the Nevils community has been named an active member of the Resolutions Committee of the Georgia Education Association for 1950 by Dr. O. C. Aderhold, GEA president.

MAX LOCKWOOD, superintendent of recreation for Statesboro, announced today a meeting of the Recreation Board and Council tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the Dinner Bell Cafe. The program for 1950 will be discussed.

DAN BLITCH, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dan Blitch, has been named assistant to Thad Horton, sports director of WSB-TV, Atlanta. He will work with Mr. Horton as a spotter at all the Georgia Tech basketball games played in Atlanta, and broadcast and televised.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR COMMISSIONER

To the Voters of Bulloch County: I wish to make official announcement of my candidacy for Chairman of the Bulloch County Commissioners of Roads and Revenues in the approaching Bulloch County Democratic Primary, and subject to its rules and regulations. I shall deeply appreciate the vote and influence of each voter of Bulloch County and I promise, if elected to this office, to give it my full time and to serve it to the fullest extent of my ability.

Sincerely yours,
HARRISON H. OLLIFF.

4-H CLUBSTERS RECEIVE CLUB CALENDAR, RECORD

With the new year, Sam J. Franklin, Studebaker and J. I. Case machinery dealer, presented every 4-H Club boy and girl with a national club calendar and record. Mr. Franklin, one of the oldest 4-H Club members in the county, distributed more than 1,400 of the calendars.

Harrison H. Olliff is manager of the office.

Red Caps Win American Legion Junior Football League Trophy

With an undefeated record, the powerful Red Cap football team of the Statesboro Recreation Department's Football League, junior size, won the American Legion Football trophy for 1949.

The fighting Cardinals gave the storming Red Caps their biggest scare when they held them to a tie in one game.

Max Roberts and Wayne Parrish are captains of the champions. Others in the backfield include Jimmy Allen, Joe Hines, C. J. Hollingsworth and Ted Firster. The line included Jimmy Franklin, Sammy Parrish, Tommy Anderson, Don Anderson, Ken Bennett, Ted McCorkle, Fleming Pruitt, Al Mc-

Dougald, Pee Wee Street, John Marshall Jackson and William Blair.

The beautiful trophy will be presented to the team soon.

Other teams in the Junior League are the Cardinals, Bull Dogs, and Pilots.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A reception was given Sunday afternoon, January 1, at the Country home of Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler Jones by their children in celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of their parents.

Those composing the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler Jones; daughters, Mrs. L. R. (Marie) Atkins, Mrs. Charles Brunson, Mrs. James L. Anderson (Oreta), Mrs. Alvin (Rosa) Anderson; son, Fern Jones; and Mrs. J. L. Zetterover, the only attendant living who was present at their wedding 50 years ago.

The guests were met by Mrs. Frank Smith and introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. John Atkins. Mrs. Arthur Brannen decorated the home throughout with gold and white magnolia leaves and arrangements of white gladioli.

Mrs. Kenneth Fraser Jr. directed the guests from the receiving line to the register which was kept by Mrs. J. R. Lanier. The register was kept in gold ink. Mrs. Doris Cason and Miss Mary Jones directed the guests to the dining room.

The dining table was covered with a white cutwork cloth, and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a golden horseshoe. Tulle was arranged and drawn from the cake to the corners of the table forming a nosegay which held a yellow candle.

Those serving were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. R. L. Lanier, Mrs. Lehmson, Mrs. J. H. Stephens, Mrs. Mary Jones, Mrs. Lee Lanier, Mrs. Ann Cason, and Mrs. Ann Rushing. The gift room was presided over by Mrs. Fern Jones and Mrs. Cuyler Waters. Mrs. Homer Cason was in charge of the music room. Mrs. Z. S. Henderson and W. E. Helm rendered music during the afternoon.

For the occasion, Mrs. Jones wore a black crepe dress and the corsage of Lady Hillington roses. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were born and reared in the community where they now live. Mrs. Jones is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carter Smith, and Mr. Jones the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mack Jones. The couple were married at the home of the bride on January 1, 1900, by T. J. Cobb. During the afternoon about 400 persons came to wish them a Happy New Year, and continued happiness.

POPULAR VISITORS FETED AT PARTIES

On New Year's Eve Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Joe Mathews were hosts at a lovely dinner party honoring Mrs. Mathews' sister, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Dobson, of Nashville, Tenn. Pointed and narcissi were used in decorating. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olliff Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olliff, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hook, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Loyett, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hodges, Miss Mary Sue Atkins and Horace McDougald.

MRS. SMITH ENTERTAINS LUNCHEON & CLUB

Members of Luncheon & Club who sample cuisines in places that attract them were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith at their home on New Year's Eve. Their husbands were allowed to join them on this special occasion.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Inman Foy Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Olliff, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bradley, and the hosts.

An invitation was extended to club members to continue the party through Tuesday and Wednesday at the Smith cottage at Crescent, which was readily accepted.

CHRISTMAS TREE

One of the happy occasions of the Christmas season was the children's Christmas party given by the Statesboro Junior Woman's Club December 26. Fifty brightly-lit children enjoyed a real Santa Claus and sang Christmas carols led by Norma Hodges, with Emma Kelly accompanying. Each child went away with a handful of toys and a Christmas stocking filled with fruit.

MISS WATERS ENTERTAINS

On Saturday evening Miss Anne Waters, freshman at the University of Georgia, was hostess at a party's Christmas party given by the Statesboro Junior Woman's Club December 26. Fifty brightly-lit children enjoyed a real Santa Claus and sang Christmas carols led by Norma Hodges, with Emma Kelly accompanying. Each child went away with a handful of toys and a Christmas stocking filled with fruit.

Party refreshments consisting of assorted open-faced sandwiches, potato chips, fruitcake squares, and punch were served. Bridge and Canasta were played until 10:30, with Franklin Foss winning a box of candy as the top scorer. The party ended up at the midnight show. Anne's guests were Patsy Odom, Sherman and Jack Upchurch, Barbara Anne Brannen and Franklin Foss, Betty Smith and W. S. Hanner Jr., Emily Williams and Billy Teets, Anne Waters and Daniel Blitch.

'Roots In The Soil'

Rochelle Hudson and Richard Travis share star billing in "Roots in the Soil," feature picture to be shown at the Georgia Theatre on Thursday, January 19. The movie headlines the FREE John Deere Day entertainment and educational program for farmers and their families which is being sponsored by the Bulloch Tractor Company.

"Roots in the Soil" is the story of a small-town bank cashier, (Richard Travis) who can't say "no" to anyone with a hard-luck story. His generosity affects the lives of his wife (Rochelle Hudson), his three children; in fact, the entire community, though it sometimes backfires. You and your family will enjoy every minute of this true-to-life story plus the beautiful singing of a chorus of nearly fifty voices.

In addition to "Roots in the Soil," several other new, all-talking pictures will be shown. "What's New in John Deere Farm Equipment"—a preview of new John Deere machines you'll want to know about... "Beyond the Price Tag"—the story of the new John Deere Model "MT" Two-Row General-Purpose Tractor with its working equipment for smaller acreages... "Farmer of the Year"—an informative dramatized picture on soil conservation... "First Choice of Farmers Everywhere"—the story of the John Deere No. 5 Power Mower as written by farmer-owners the country over.

According to The Bulloch Tractor Company, admission to the John Deere Day Program is by Ticket only. Any farmer who has not received his tickets or needs more can get them free at The Bulloch Tractor Company before the day of the show.

Mrs. Julian C. Lane has returned to Atlanta after spending the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Lane.

MRS. BLAND HOSTESS TO HER BRIDGE CLUB

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Percy Bland was hostess to her bridge club. The doorway of her lovely home served as a New Year's greeting as guests arrived and the happy personal greeting of the hostess as she met her guests put them in the mood for the attractive green and silver theme and the New Year motif used in the tallies and silver top hats and walking canes used as favors.

Exquisite cannelias were the only flowers used in the green and silver setting. The guests were served assorted sandwiches, cakes, candies, and coffee. Cannelias plants were given as prizes. Mrs. Olliff Boyd made high score for the visitors; Mrs. Jack Carlton was top scorer for the club, and Mrs. Lloyd Brannen won top prize. Consolation prize, a tray of camellias blooms went to Mrs. Al Sutherland.

Other players were Mesdames Grady Attaway, Percy Averitt, D. L. Davis, Jim Donaldson, Inman Dekle, Devane Watson, Z. Whitehurst, Frank Mikell, Jim Moore, Lee DeLoach, Clyde Mitchell, Henry Blitch, Loy Waters, Grady Bland, Waldo Floyd, and Hal Macdon Jr.

BUTCH COLLEY CELEBRATES HIS TENTH BIRTHDAY

On Tuesday, December 10, Mrs. Ward Colley honored her son on his tenth birthday with a party at the Recreation Center. Many games were played with a treasure hunt topping them all for fun. Adding greatly to their enjoyment was the presence of their teacher, Mrs. Inman Foy Jr. Party hats were distributed and the boys were given bags of marbles and girls received toy egg beaters as favors. They were served birthday cake and ice cream.

ANDERSON—MORRIS

The marriage of Miss Sarah Jerona Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. Anderson, to Loid Glen Morris, son of Mrs. John Morris and the late Mr. Morris, took place Sunday, January 1, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. V. F. Agan. The only attendance was the families of the bride and groom. The bride was becomingly dressed in a blue gazarine suit with pink accessories. Her shoulder corsage was pink rosebuds. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make their home in Statesboro.

PARTY FOR VISITOR

Mrs. Eugene DeLoach, of Columbia, S. C., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cecil Brannen, was the inspiration of a lovely desert-bridge party Friday afternoon at Sewell House, with Mrs. Jim Moore, Mrs. Leff DeLoach and Mrs. W. D. Anderson as hostesses. Lovely cut flowers and Christmas decorations furnished a holiday atmosphere.

Mrs. DeLoach was presented a green linen costume handkerchief; for high score at bridge, Mrs. Dew Groover received an after-dinner cup and saucer. Mrs. E. L. Barnes won chrome coasters for cut, and a satin hose box for low went to Mrs. Percy Averitt. Guests were invited for six tables.

BUFFET SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Donaldson entertained Wednesday evening at a buffet supper at their home on Zetterover Avenue. The lovely home was decorated with pink carnations, pink carnations with cedar tinted pink adding charm to the party scene.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mr. and Mrs. Devan Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Attaway, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McDougald, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bland, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Will Woodcock, and Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Ramsey.

and trussing today, and we'll have the finest dinner I know how to cook. Already, I have prepared a mold of this congealed relish that combines ground cranberries, a ground oranges, celery, nuts and orange jello. . . and we have a gorgeous big fruitcake and there will be fluffy rice and crisp celery and candied yams and buttered onions and big fat green olives. . .

When the afternoon is gone, and I begin to get dusk, Beth will turn on all the lighted wreaths and electric candles in seven of Mom's upstairs windows and light the red bells that hang in a small oval window on the stairs. . . And the big Christmas tree will gladden and sparkle, and we'll get Mom back to bed and Beth into her warm crib. . . then maybe the four of us—Daddy, John, Ellis and I will have a good hot game of Canasta and end up the evening with delicious but indigestible sandwiches of whole wheat bread from Norwich, Connecticut, and Swiss cheese from Alliance, Ohio, washed down with beakers of orange juice from the crate Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beach sent from Fernandina, Florida.

Then Ellis will go to Eastman for a little interval of dove shooting and I shall stay on here for a few more days and try to bring back the roses to my mother's cheeks.

I never in my life have felt so important and so appreciated as during this 11 days in Thomaston. . . My Father believes that no body should be given responsibility with authority, and he has given me free rein. . . I've been my own boss and everybody else's and it has been a privilege to answer the telephone and rush to the door to receive everything from potted plants and bouquet of roses and trays of homemade candies to casseroles.

seroles of steaming spoon-bread, pots of noodle soup, plates of cake and bread bowls of freshly-cooked turnip greens. . .

It's been a lot of fun and I have even enjoyed the planning of meals and buying of groceries. . . Last night for supper, I had beef stew with plenty of vegetables and a double batch of corn sticks, and it would have done your heart good to see the gusto with which that plain meal was attacked.

I'll admit I did feel a quick thrust of sadness when Ellis' special delivery letter came at 7:30. . . I read that he had set up a parlor and had done his best to decorate it. . . It hurt me to think of Ellis' putting forth all that effort, when I knew that Beth and I just couldn't be there to enjoy it, and that Ellis himself would have a dull holiday unless he left home and journeyed in this direction.

It was then that I thought of Bobbie Burns and his classical couplet to the effect that "the best laid schemes o' mice and men gang aft a-gley." I said to myself that the best laid schemes of some women have also been known to go a-gley. . . I looked back at the plans I'd made for our holiday in Waycross and realized that the handling of that entire undertaking had been lifted right out of my fingers. . . It simply hadn't been in my power to push through the Christmas project and force things to happen according to my plans. . . a combination of circumstances beyond my control had laid waste the entire structure of my schemes for a Christmas in my own little house.

But listen: I wouldn't for the world have missed this chance to be of service to my parents.

I can make it up to Ellis and Beth for everything they've been deprived of. . . I can spend the rest of my life in making merry at Waycross. . . but this may be the only time I'll ever be the means of creating a Merry Christmas for the people who gave me my start.

I'm glad I came here. You couldn't have kept me away.

No wonder they're calling them "TOP CHOICE FOR 'FIFTY'"

They're greater in power—higher in compression—a standout in styling—dreams to drive—and now there's a Buick beauty for 1950 to fit practically any budget

No, we just couldn't hold back the whole Buick line for 1950.

They're too good-looking—too much fun to drive—too jam-packed with stepped-up, higher-compression, ready-to-ramble power—to be kept under cover.

So maybe you've already seen some 1950 Buicks on the highway.

Maybe you've noticed the extra "git up and travel" they have—glimpes the wide, curving windshields (one piece in most models)—noted, approvingly, that the typical Buick taper is now found in all Buick fenders.

Maybe you've even heard some things...

That there are more than a dozen-and-a-half models to choose from. That there are three power plants in the Buick line—all of higher compression, all stepped up in power.

That all models are big and roomy inside—some rear seats are better than a foot wider than before!—yet in every instance, shorter over-all, so easier to handle, park and garage.

Above all, maybe you've heard of exciting news on price...

That Dynaflow Drive, for instance—standard on Roadmaster models, optional on all others—now costs 20% less than on 1949 models.

LOTS OF LUGGAGE SPACE, plus a high-fashion rear-end treatment, grace the Buick four-door Sedan model for 1950. This is the Roadmaster, and above is the Super version of this much-wanted 4-door, 6-passenger Sedan.

VOLUME X

2 Samuel XV.26

'Let Him Do To Me As Seemeth Good Unto Him'

Dare to look up to God, and say, "Make use of me for the future as Thou wilt. I am of the same mind; I am one with Thee. I refuse nothing which seems good to Thee. Lead me whither Thou wilt. Is it Thy will that I should be in a public or private condition, dwell here, or be banished, be poor or rich? Under all these circumstances, I will testify unto Thee before men."—Epictetus.

Ole Lady Luck, who watches over little boys' basketball games, has done her duty for the Bulldogs, claims Captain Jimmy Jones.

While the Cardinals, the Pilots and the Red Caps have picked up four wins each out of six basketball games played, the luckless Bulldogs' win column shows only one win out of seven starts.

Cap. Jones says that his team will soon be up and looking down.

His Bull team Monday night the Bulldogs a score into them and held the score to 37 to 33. The score remained tied almost to the last minute of the game.

In the other games the Red Caps defeated a hard-fighting Cardinal 28 to 20. Jappy Atkins and Gene Newton were Red Cap high scorers. Cliff Cannon was high for the Cards.
